Biography

Sindy is a graduating senior with majors in Biochemistry and Anthropology and a minor in Music. They have been playing the flute for 10 years and have been singing for 15. Sindy has thoroughly enjoyed studying music throughout college, and are excited to finish off the experience with a senior recital that combines both flute and voice. Outside of music, Sindy is heavily involved in queer and abolitionist organizing work and has a healthy obsession with indie board games.

Sindy would like to thank Dr. Jen Gartley and Ms. Sarah Price for their guidance and mentorship over the past four years! This concert would certainly not be possible without their support. Sindy would also like to thank their beloved partner, friends, and puppy for all of their love and support.
